

September 2021

Dear Friend of Kilgore,

Kilgore is a unique town.
Kilgore history makes her unique.
Kilgore's history is interesting and offers a story.
Kilgore's once unusual skyline gives her the story.

It is that most unusual story detailing her history that Kilgore Historical Preservation Foundation's Book Archive Committee has told in four books; NOW we venture to tell the Kilgore story in a professionally produced film. The documentary will be suitable for theater screening, television and digital devices using documents, photographs and interviews that feature first person "boom town" stories.

We ask you to play your role in this film! How? With a donation, thus partnering with us to tell Kilgore's unique story for ALL to see. Any amount is appreciated and will be matched by a generous grant. KHPF is a 501(c)3 organization.

Kilgore has been forever emblazoned by the oil boom – from its historic downtown to its famous derrick skyline. Now, with your help we will preserve the town's story in a sparkling script, unequalled first-hand stories and unparalleled photographs as a salute to Kilgore's 150th Anniversary in 2022.

To view a rough, unedited clip at the KHPF website, visit: KHPF.org.

If you wish to use your credit card to pay online, please visit: KHPF.org. If you prefer to send a check, please make payment to KHPF and return it with the enclosed form to: KHPF Book Archive Committee, PO Box 1094, Kilgore TX 75663.

Thank you for your consideration and your role in preserving Kilgore's unique history.

Book Archive Committee
Kilgore Historical Preservation Foundation

Caleb Pirtle, III

Terry Stembridge

Ruth Anne Camp

Sue Martin Brown

Janie G. Dickerson

The documentary is produced in memory of deceased Book Archive Committee Members

Caroline Ross

Helen (Pudge) Griffin

F. E. (Frank) Brown, Jr.